PRESS RELEASE

QUADRIVIO GROUP AND THE ELKHEREIJI GLOBAL GROUP LAUNCH A CROSS-BORDER STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP
INITIATIVE TO CONNECT EUROPEAN MARKET EXPERTISE WITH SAUDI ARABIA AND THE WIDER MENA REGION

Milan – Jeddah, 17 November 2026

Quadrivio Group – a leading European platform for alternative investments – announced a strategic partnership with the Saudi Elkhereiji Global Group. The initiative is designed to build a lasting, two-way connection between Quadrivio's European investment expertise and the opportunities emerging in Saudi Arabia and the wider Middle East. It brings together Quadrivio's specialized investment teams, thematic funds and international market reach with the ElKhereiji family's entrepreneurial experience, regional network and knowledge of the Gulf. Sheikh Mohammed ElKhereiji, a prominent member and chairman of the Group, is active across hospitality, luxury goods, real estate, construction, finance and trading. He holds board positions at companies in Europe and the Middle East and is committed to philanthropic work, including as Honorary President and International Ambassador for the Swiss Red Cross.

The partnership will give investors and businesses in the GCC greater access to Quadrivio's market insight, investment capabilities and experience across European markets. At the same time, it will support Quadrivio in bringing those capabilities to Saudi Arabia, with the aim of growing its presence in the country and helping its existing portfolio companies assess opportunities to expand, invest and build their market share locally.

The initiative will also create a basis for both parties to explore investment opportunities in both directions: across Saudi Arabia and the wider MENA region, and in European markets. Alongside investment activity, the partners will develop relationships with institutional investors, family offices and strategic businesses whose interests and capabilities span the two regions.

The partnership forms part of Quadrivio Group's broader international development strategy. The group operates from major financial centres including Milan, London, Paris, Monaco, Luxembourg, New York and Hong Kong. It expects to open offices in the region starting with Jeddah in the coming months, further strengthening its ability to work with partners and portfolio companies across the Middle East.

The deal was led and closed by Alessandro Binello, Co-Founder and Group CEO of Quadrivio Group, and by Martino Rocca, COO at Quadrivio Group.

Alessandro Binello, Group CEO and Co-Founder of Quadrivio Group, commented: "The Middle East – and Saudi Arabia in particular – today stands as one of the world's most dynamic investment markets. Our partnership with the ElKhereiji family is built on a shared long-term vision and on the conviction that sizeable opportunities can be created by pairing European enterprising excellence with the capital, growth and transformation driving the entire Gulf region. We're excited to embark on this new chapter together."

"We are pleased to begin this partnership with Quadrivio. Its experience in European markets and its focused investment teams bring valuable expertise to Saudi Arabia and the wider region. We see the relationship as a two-way initiative: supporting Quadrivio and its portfolio companies as they develop in our market, while enabling both sides to explore opportunities across MENA and Europe," added Sheikh Mohammed ElKhereiji, Chairman of the Elkhereiji Global Group of Companies.

Quadrivio Group was assisted by the Legance law office, with a team comprising Gianluca Trudda (General Counsel) and Nicolò Amato (Associate); while the Elkhereiji family was assisted by the Pirola law firm, with Vittorio Muschitiello (Partner) and Greta Mariani (Associate).
